

INT0805 – MyID Toolkit Overview

The MyID toolkit training course is targeted at experienced operatives and system administrators who require a hands-on understanding of possible MyID customization.

Specifically, this hands-on course will teach delegates how to change and add to the core product in several ways including language and terminology translation, interface rebranding, advanced reporting techniques and project customization.

Course Code:	INT0805	Course Language:	English
Duration:	3 days	Class Size (max):	Six

Prerequisites
Experience of deploying MyID in a commercial environment
Previous attendance of the MyID Installation and Configuration course INT0801 / INT0803
Previous attendance of the MyID Support course INT0804
Understanding of web design technologies

Day 1	Day 2	Day 3
Customization options Overview Items to preserve	Email Notification <Detail required>	Project Designer Defining the custom requirement The project designer tool Custom attributes Custom forms Adding new tabs Adding data to existing tabs
Translation The MyID dictionary Replacing words and phrases Split language sites	Reporting Advanced reports Reports builder Custom views
Rebranding GUI structure & frameset Website images CSS references Changing the product skin

Objective:

At the end of the course, attendees will understand the various ways in which a core MyID deployment may be changed to meet customer requirements. The course contains a high level of hands-on lab exercises and attendees will be expected to use varied 3rd party tools in addition to MyID toolkit components to fulfil the course objectives.

Contact Details:

For further details or training reservations, please register online or email the Intercede training team @ training@intercede.com